

ARCHITECTURE CONCEPTUAL DEVELOPMENT

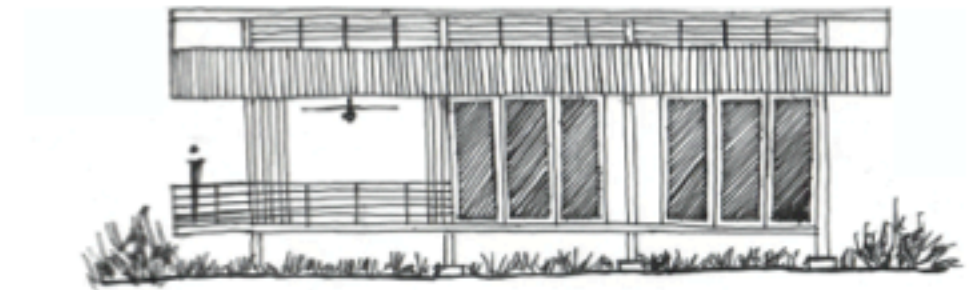

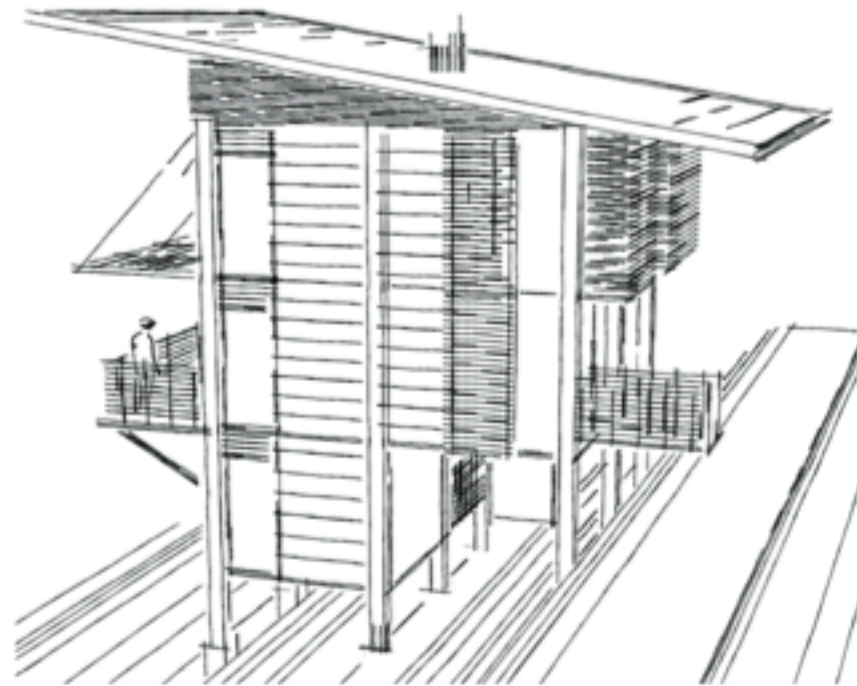

VIDA and Parq Arquitectos working in collaboration with the client team have developed concept architecture for the first phases of Cerro Tigre. Through a process including many site visits, working sessions and discussions the team have created an architectural language that responds to the needs of the future residents of Cerro Tigre, the site conditions, local climate, energy efficiency while utilizing locally available materials, construction techniques and labour.

Ocean View Single Villa

Canopy House

Detached Villa

